

The right to a free press belongs to the man who owns one. Please don't destroy the protection of free speech and free press by relaxing media ownership rules.